

BS and SS Split Games --BS Holds on Another Week

KB Winds Up Winner for the Week

Effective date: 2017-12-12

Coming to you from beautiful San Diego, where they don't have a football team!

BS plays the rule of thumb and takes Den to win in Denver. SS takes a lesson from BS --don't mess with Den in Denver. SS takes Philly and the two longest playing PFVCC members split wins and BS stays in the penthouse for another week up by one game.

CM posts a nice week with 10 wins to leapfrog MS and ties MM for fourth place. Our 2016 Champ KS trying to gain traction all year has 11 winners also passes MS for fifth place. It must be finals prep for the True Freshman from Southern Utah as his pick totalled a sickly seven wins and drops a couple of spots. KB the big winner takes 13 winners to the winners circle. Way to go KB! Seems like a few members were surprised there was a week 14 as we saw a season high four members with Visitor Team Picks.

Ok, get ready for week 15. Games this week include Thursday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday.

Yours in football,

SS
