

BS pushes ahead; Sits alone in the Penthouse

BD reaches milestone with 1800 lifetime wins

Effective date: 2018-09-25

With week 3 in the books, we now have a sole leader ahead of the pack. BS shook himself free of SS by picking 10 winners which was good enough to be tops this week along with SR and LF who also slashed 10 wins a piece. A tip of the cap to that trio. Hot on their heels were several members who posted 9 wins of their own, which led to minimal movement on the leaderboards.

Speaking of leaderboards, congratulations are in order for our very own BD as she pushed herself passed the 1800 win mark this week. A nice career thus far BD, push on!

We had double barreled action in the loner pick department this week, however both shots missed their targets. DR took a shot with NYJ, but they were unable to fight off a hungry CLE team, and JP took LAC who lost their battle for LA bragging rights with LAR. Better luck next time boys.

We move into week 4 with the wind at our backs, tons more football to be picked. Best luck to all!

Happy Picking,

LF, The Pimp
