

JP Nearly Goes Perfect, KS Makes Ground

MIP Not Relevant -- BS Holds Lead

Effective date: 2018-10-29

In a sea of 10+ winners this week JP stands out and goes against the tide twice and splits the difference. With a gutsy and successful loner with SEA and a pick for MIN that didn't pan out, JP comes one game short of the coveted "Perfect Performance" (moment of silence, nod head in admiration and remembrance of precious things that "almost were"). Note also: JP bagged his 1000th career win this week! Well played Sir!

The Membership is generally holding pace with BS without the emergence of the dreaded MIP. Two made ground including the aforementioned JP while KS put up 12 wins. MM and SS seem to stay ahead the dogfight that spans the 5th through 15th positions while KS plays it cool with a "you don't see me coming" attitude in 4th.

In Loner Pick news: JP again "gets ink" for his SEA loner (did I mention he almost had a perfect performance?). PM takes a flyer and comes up short while MS (in true Cheesehead style) takes a GB loss on the chin (sometimes the heart dares to be stronger than the odds).

Happy Halloween Everyone!!

Yours in Picking,

BS, President
