

JP & KS go for 10 wins, KS on the move

BS and SS stay put... race to the finish

Effective date: 2018-12-11

If we weren't picking in Week 14, and were only fans of the sport, it would have been an exciting week to watch with the amount of upsets that there were....However that wasn't the case and if some games left you up in arms and frustrated...well chances are you weren't alone.. And if you were daring enough to go against the masses and land an underdog victory, then a tip of the cap to you. KS and DP gave it their best go as they both locked in 10 winners, this was enough for KS to gain a game on both BS and SS who pulled down 9 winners of their own along with DP, nice picking to those mentioned!! Week 14 also brought us our first member to be mathematically eliminated from contention...KB, who's strategy to take the weekly visitors picks hasn't panned out as he had hoped, is now officially picking (or not picking) for pride, nonetheless we give you a nod KB.

We had two members who took loners this week, BD fell short with WAS losing to NYG while PM snagged a loner victory with NYJ over BUF. BD we salute the effort, PM great picking good sir!!

As we glance ahead, we sit eagerly waiting for one of these headlines to ring true..Will BS pull off a back to back campaign?...Can SS close in and make history by hoisting his 9th trophy (1 trophy, hoisted 9 times)?....Or will KS rewrite the narrative and come from behind late?... The pressure rises...stay tuned!

On a housekeeping note, The boys from record keeping and administration want to know, "Have you ever been the PFVCC President? If so, what year(s)?" . Please post your response to the message board or contact SS directly. It would be much appreciated!

Happy Picking,

LF, The Pimp
