

NF shows out in week 1

Leads the pack behind a strong 13 wins

Effective date: 2019-09-10

It was a lethargic week 1 for many NFL teams, but that didn't trip up most, as big weeks were posted across the board. None bigger than NF, who must've listened to a podcast or two over the summer, tallied 13 victories to put him in the lead on his own. MS and SR slide in very nicely with 12 winners, the 11 win club includes BS, JP, KS and LF and the "what about us" 10 win 5-some of CM, DP, DR, MM and SS follow closely behind. Very nice opening weeks to all those mentioned!

We had 3 loner picks on watch this week, however all 3 were juuuust a bit outside, as no underdogs were up to the task. JP missed on JAX who got pounced by KC, and DR took two on the chin this week with NYG losing to DAL and MIA sending a Pop Warner team on the field against BAL. We nod to your efforts nonetheless gentleman!

A final sendoff is in order for BD as she steps away from the PFVCC grind, membership wishes you the very best!

With the all anticipated week 1 in our rearview, we get ready for what should shake out to be a very entertaining year in football. Best of luck to all!

Still Pimpin'

LF