

BS and KB Unwrap 13 Wins Over the Holiday Weekend

LF & DJ Share More Holiday Cheer with 12 Wins of Their Own

Effective date: 2024-12-24

It's that time of year. The stockings are on the mantle, the Christmas tree is lit, holiday music is on in the background and the NFL season is dwindling down to its final weeks. The holidays and football go so well together and it always feels a little extra special to unwrap gifts and count wins at the same time. BS and KB did most of the counting as they both pulled in 13 wins to get themselves into the holiday spirit. An eggnog cheers of the spiked variety to you two! LF and DJ were next on Santa's nice list as they ripped open 12 wins which they were quite happy with. SS, KS, MS & PM emptied their stockings to find 11 wins, DP and CM find 10 and MM was surprised with 9. Solid performances across Santas nice list, and even if you aren't as happy with the quantity of wins just remind yourself.. at least you aren't on the naughty list. NF, however, was on the naughty list. There's always one that deserves coal in their stocking, and this year belonged to NF. Unfortunately he failed to log his picks in week 16 which lead to a tough week, but we know that it was probably just because he was excited for Christmas. For that we forgive and Santa deems you an honorary nice lister...But the coal remains.

CM and DP went for the Christmas loner pick in an effort to bring cheer to the team highlighted in red, but unfortunately NYJ and SEA weren't under their trees this year. A couple L's but we still honor the effort!

Two weeks remain in the race to crown a PFVCC Champion and as we share in the holiday festivities let's remember what is most important. Family, friends, shared memories...and WINNING! Merry Christmas to you and don't forget there are games on Christmas so get those picks in!

Your Jolly President,

LF
